Use NON-FOOD REWARDS

For any age student, don’t underestimate the power of using verbal praise that is specific. For example, “You did a great job, John. I’m so proud of you for helping Jack with his math problems today.”

Alternatives to food as a reward
Students can:
- Sit with friends.
- Listen to music while working.
- Be given less homework.
- Get a late homework pass.
- Be entered into a drawing for donated prizes.
- Receive recognition during morning announcements.
- Get tickets to school events (sports games, dances).
- Choose partners for activities.
- Earn points or play money for privileges.
- Have class outside.
- Be recognized at a pep rally or assembly.
- Choose end-of-class brain teasers or games.
- Earn sports equipment or athletic gear (frisbees, water bottles, head or wrist sweat bands, NERF balls, etc.)
- Receive a one-day “Park Anywhere” pass.

Benefits of providing non-food rewards:
- Creates an environment that fosters healthy eating and supports the 5-2-1-0 message.
- Allows the opportunity for more frequent rewards.
- Adds to fitness if physical activity is used as reward.

To support your efforts, help to create a district-wide policy that prohibits the use of food as a reward.
